Issued Date: July 16, 2025

Platform: Roblox

Type: Multiplayer & Single-player Adventure Battle Game

LEGAL PROTECTION & OWNERSHIP

The game Robomons™ is a fully protected intellectual property, jointly created and owned by the following individuals:

- Need apples
- E / E_yuki
- Aarav
- Alzoro.It

All development, design, mechanics, names, characters (Robomons), storylines, assets, and systems created under Robomons™ are the exclusive legal property of the above owners.

This project is governed by international copyright law, intellectual property regulations, and common law trademark rights. Any form of misuse or replication will be treated as intellectual property theft.

WHAT IS ROBOMONS™

Robomons™ is an immersive Roblox experience that blends both multiplayer and single-player gameplay. The game allows players to:

- Battle real-time with online players
- Follow their own custom storyline
- Catch, train, and evolve Robomons

- Fight and capture legendary and rare Robomons
- Participate in Robomon Raids for high-tier rewards

All gameplay mechanics, raid formats, character designs, and the concept of “Robomons” as a game universe are original works and fully protected.

STRICTLY PROHIBITED

We do not permit any individual, server, game, or organization to:

- Copy or use the name Robomons™
 - Replicate any Robomon designs, models, or characters
 - Use Robomons gameplay mechanics or raid systems
 - Upload, reupload, or distribute assets from the game
 - Claim ownership or make derivative games using Robomons concepts

ENFORCEMENT & LEGAL ACTION

This project is under full legal surveillance. If any individual, group, or server is found copying the name “Robomons” or using any in-game assets or ideas, the owners of Robomons™ will initiate immediate legal action, which may include:

- Filing copyright strikes on Roblox
- Launching DMCA takedown requests on all platforms
- Submitting reports to Roblox Trust & Safety
- Publicly exposing infringements through legal disclosure
- If necessary, escalating matters to civil legal courts

No warnings will be issued to repeat or obvious offenders. We take our project seriously and will defend our brand at all costs.

NOTICE TO COPYCATS

If you copy the name “Robomons”, or build a game using the same concept, you are putting yourself under legal liability. Even similar-sounding names will be treated as brand infringement and will result in takedowns and escalations.

This includes using our name for:

- Games
 - Discord servers
 - Social media pages
 - Content monetization
